The train consisted of Sir of the newest and largest Bullman Palace bars, which were contracted for by the bommittee for the round trup, one private Car, and one baggage Car, and van bluecial with the right of way the entire vouls. The Special Car was tendered, as a compliment to the Eminent Commander by one of the principal vailroads over which the Commandery passed, and was occupied by the Il: 2: Krand Master and family, and the family of the Ominent Commander. It was run free of expense by the Railroads over which our roule lay, and as its occupants poid the Ineasurer of the bommittee! 1395. this paid a clear profit of $50 - toward the Expenses of the Pilgrimage, after deducting all expenses incrused on its account. This Car was also used as Head-quarters for the boun andery while en voute, and was stocked with provisions and supplies for the entertainment of members and quests of the Commandery at the personal expense of the Comment Commander. The distance travelled by the bommandery is but little short of 8000 miles, the time consumed thirty one days. It this has been accomplished without bickness, or accident. The expense of the Pilgrimage approximales 50.000, none of which has been or will be drawn from the Greassery of the Commandery, notwith shanding the amount to properly and americusty places at the disposal of the Committee by vote of in Commander, to be used if needed", to sustain the honor and reputation of Boston Commandery for Knightly Courtery and hospitality-The Committee are under obligations to many persons for favors received and hervices rendered, and to no one more than the

I thank you sincerely, on my own behalf and for my commander, for your Kindly interest and care for the bodies of our occased Knight Batchelder and wife.

I saw his surviving brother last evening and he mentioned with much emotion the Kindly interest thours by the dbasons of New Bed ford. The calamity was one of deepest sadness and many of its incidente mathe even our hearts to beca who have not been freezenally stricken. The bitter cup of death we must use booner or later take, and sometimes nature gently claims her own, but in either case, whether we die in the embrace of friends or in the bosom of ocean, we go into the arms of the same Imfinitely good One, whose love and Keeping we med not fear.

piccifit of the beautiful testimonial Commemorative of their bidginage to our bity by the Dea. In a few well chosen words the presentation was made in our Asylum by brand Senior Warden, Sir Tristam Burges, to whom the pleasing duty had been assigned by the generous donors.

The expressions of admiration from all present for the Exiquisite design and artistic execution of the splendid gift-could only be equaled by the high regard and warm fraternal affection feet for the givers, who so kindly remembered those they left behind when returning to their far off homes.

It will be friesed for all time to come as a memento of the grandest masonic gathering ever witnessed on the Pacific boast, and, as a token of the fraternal ties which we trust will ever bind Boston Bommandery to us, will be cherished as the fairest year that adorns our Asylum.

In behalf of balifornia bommandery N. I Knights Templar,
